Canto 11, L. I.

Fair land; Of chivalry the old domain

Land of the vine and olive;
Lovely Spain

Though not for thee with classic shores to vie

In charms that fix th' enthu-sias't's pensive eye

Yet hast thou scenes of beauty richly fraught

With all that wakes the glow of lofty thought.

—Felicia D. Hemans.

FOREWORD

THROUGH Kansas City passed one of the famous thoroughfares in the world. The Santa Fe Trail was the principal link between the East and the Southwest, making it possible for traders and prospectors to pass through Westport Landing and on to the Southwest. From California, Arizona, New Mexico, and Old Mexico came semblances of the old Spanish influences. In our own city we find the Spanish Architectural influence in the form of the Plaza. With this in mind we build our "Herald" around a Spanish Art and Architectural theme.

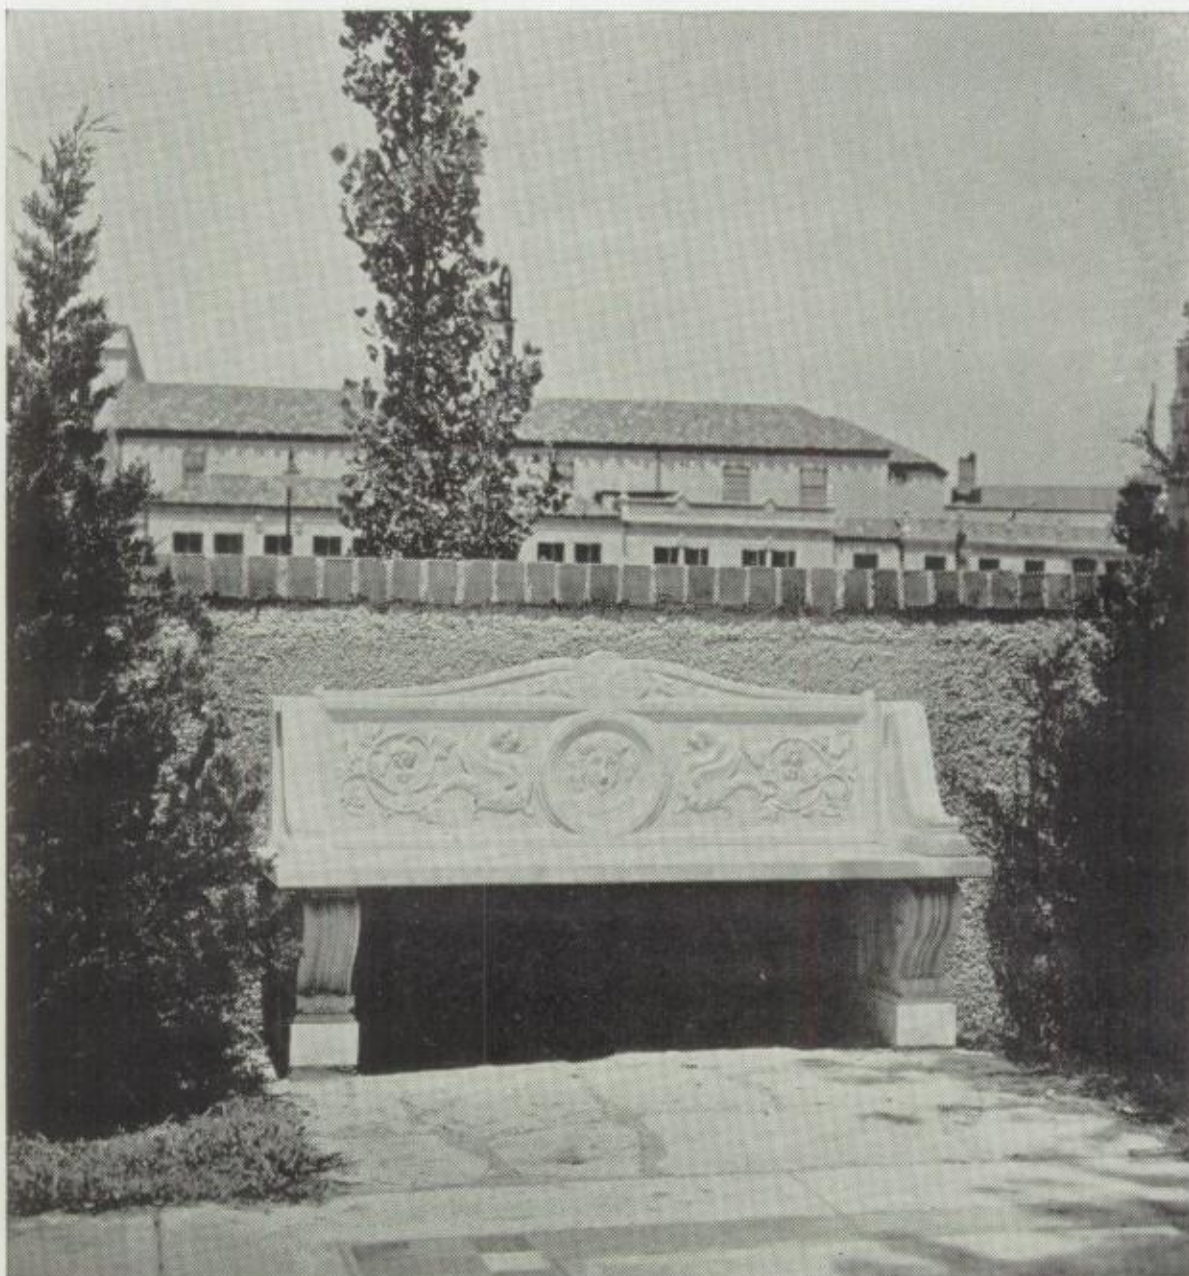

In 1910, C. T. Goodale first came to Westport. He was Irving Club advisor in 1912. He started the "Crier" in 1914. For six years he was Clay Club advisor, and in 1915 he was Literary Advisor of the Editorial Staff of the Herald. Again in 1931, he was chosen Clay advisor, and today he is firmly established in the esteem of the student body.

C. T. Goodale

DEDICATION

Sincerity of purpose
Kindliness of disposition
Service to those ideals that have made him a real teacher.
Respected and loved by his pupils
His friendship valued by those who know him.
A courteous gentleman at all times
It is for these qualities that the Senior class of 1936
dedicates
The Herald to Mr. C. T. Goodale.

Explanation of Art Theme

THIS year we have chosen the Spanish theme because it is closely connected with Kansas City. Our Plaza district is entirely of Spanish architecture and one of the most thriving spots around Kansas City. Of the cities of the southwest, Kansas City carries on more business with Spanish speaking people.

Six artists were chosen for the Art Staff this year: Mildred Clawson did the front piece, Galaxy, Herald Staff, Art Staff, Senior officers page, Ex Libris, Finis, assisted with Tiger Tales and general set-up work. Yvonne Jacobs designed Arts and Music section page and Activities section page, Charles Carr, the only Junior on the Staff, made the R. O. T. C. section page and Boys' Athletics section page. Amy Wahlberg designed the Societies section page, Girls' Athletics and Faculty section page. Robert Vogel made the Tiger Tales section page and other decoration. James Knox did the Spanish type lettering that titles each section of the Herald.

John Hysom made the clever three pigs cartoon.

The cover contest was won by Mildred Clawson.

The Art Staff enjoyed their work and hope you will find enjoyment in it also. We wish to thank Miss Wilhite and Miss Shelly for their help and co-operation.

BANKERS

The best thing to do with surplus money is to save it. To start saving when you're young is the purpose of the school banking system.

Westport has been right up near the top all year in banking, due to the extensive campaign for thrift that was waged. Every Westport student has had a weekly opportunity to bank some of the money he spends on himself. Miss Carol Hayden, head of the faculty banking committee, was ably assisted by Miss Eggleston and Miss Collins.

Early in the second semester the banking department gave a thrift playlet in an assembly. The three important phases of saving in the schools were shown.

The Commerce Trust Company has cooperated fully with the school, rendering invaluable aid to the crusade for thrift. Two banking tours were offered to the students, through which the inner workings of the bank were shown. The student banking committee consisted of Bob Dolan, Billy Bray and Jerry Bernd.

CLOTHING

The first year of the course in Clothing is completed in Junior High School. In the second year emphasis is placed on budgeting, construction of pajamas and a school dress. Sometimes a child's garment is made. Selection of color, and lines to suit the individual personality is an important division. The second semester is devoted to cotton and linen suits and dresses. Care and repair of clothing, home activities and use of leisure time is taken up in this year.

The third year, time is spent on income and expenditure. After the construction of the wool dress, silk dresses are made. In the last few years the course has been broadened to include child care and training. Family Relationships are also discussed.

The fourth year tailored garments are made; usually a suit, with a lining. Time is spent on character development. The second semester the matter of commencement comes up, because by this time the girl has progressed to be a senior. Many girls make their own graduation dresses.

The last year outside work is done on history, choice and care of accessories. The latest fashions in color line and design are studied. Stress is laid on the importance of being well groomed. The clothing department includes about three hundred and fifty girls. There are nine classes—the instructors being: Miss Helen Guffin, Miss Ann Roach and Miss Elizabeth James.

MANY years have passed since the picturesque town crier called out the latest news of local and national importance. His strident voice now echoes only in the past, but as we, the members of this year's staff, stand grouped about the files, we seem to hear him faintly calling as from afar. As we begin our last inspection of the files, however, we realize that what we hear is the echo of one of his successors fading gradually in the distance until another year. Slowly, reminiscingly, we proceed with the review of the work we have done.

In the first issue, we read of the death of a beloved teacher, one who had become almost an institution in Westport. It will be a long time before any of us forgets Mrs. Ada G. MacLaughlin. As we continue turning the pages, we come across the words of the new school song, and unconsciously we find ourselves humming the melody. Still humming, we read of the first P.T. A. dance, and our eyes sparkle in retrospect. The American Education Week number brings back memories of the award which followed, and we recall with pride that we were granted the exclusive right to print the Mayor's proclamation. We laugh as we read of the fall play, but our jaws set with determination as we review the account of the fight against vandalism and careless drivers. We instinctively straighten as we gaze at the picture of our cadet colonel. Our faces are wreathed with smiles as we recall the first vaudeville show, and we look forward to seeing it again next year. How happy we are when we realize that we are the first class to have graduated in the new auditorium. But by this time we have reached the end of the files and sadly, almost reverently we turn away.

It is then that we remember our consternation at being without an editor or any other officer, and we whimsically recall our dire prognostications. In spite of our forebodings, however, the year has been a success, and we group ourselves around the man whose work has resulted in this happy ending, our adviser. He had worked untiringly that the paper might be published on schedule and that it might be one of which the students of Westport could point to with pride. He had proceeded unflinchingly in the face of financial difficulties and had won the fight. And with all this, he had found an abundance of time to teach us the main points of newspaper work. As the last faint echoes of this year's Crier die in the past, we, the members of the staff of 1935-36, failing to find words to express our gratitude, merely wish to say, "Thank you, Mr. Booth."

PUBLIC SPEAKING AND DEBATING

In this group are members of the Public speaking classes who have spoken in the city Charities Campaign, Christmas Seals sales campaign, participated in debates with other schools, and have engaged in public speaking competition.

The participants in the Constitutional contest were: Howard Wolf, Billy Burrell, Jerome Bormaster, J. L. Russell, Elmer Monahan, Bill Harris, Athalie Urie, James Elliott, Gordon Smith, William Farmer, Byrne Geary, Thelma Hubbard. Winners were: first place—Bill Harris, second place—J. L. Russell, third place—Howard Wolf. Because of the inability of the winners of first and second places to participate, Howard Wolf represented Westport in the district contest and won second place.

The Charity speakers who were invited to speak in the 1935 Charities Campaign were: Elmer Monahan, at the Covenant Presbyterian Church and also over radio station WLBF, Howard Wolf at the M. E. Church, J. L. Russell at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church, Frances Baker at the Rockhill Baptist Church, and Robert Mead at the South Side Business Men's Association.

Those speaking outside of school on behalf of the Christmas Seal sale in November were: Louie Swartz at the Christmas Seal Banquet, and Catherine Threlkeld before the P. T. A.

Those active in inter-school debates throughout the year were: Peggy Phelps, Jane Leisenberg, J. L. Russell, Eugene Barnes, James Elliott, Victor McMahill, Billy Burrell, Bill Harris, Eugene Stewart, Robert Mead, William Farmer, Donald Galamba, Howard Wolf. The teams met Northwest High in Kansas City, Kansas; William Chrisman at Independence; Southwest; Rockhurst and Manual.

Members of the Public Speaking classes, speaking in the Home Rooms have promoted the sale of activity tickets, Christmas Seals Band concert tickets, aided in the charity drive, and in many other ways have assisted in furthering the welfare of Westport. Much of the success of the Vaudeville Show undertaken for the first time at Westport this year, was due to the persistent and enthusiastic ticket sales campaign conducted by the members of the public speaking classes.

Two years ago, the Stage and Screen Club was organized by a group of students who had learned to assist in the classrooms filing papers, drawing charts, operating movie and slide machines, making costumes, operating lights, and managing the stage. Since that time there had always been a group of upper classmen, for the most part superior students and leaders in student life, who have helped to train the under classmen to serve the school in the capacities. All this has been done in the most unselfish spirit, and the experience gained by those participating has proven invaluable to the individual, as well as to the school.

The club is organized into eleven separate service groups, each with a group leader: the script, Helen Greve, leader; house crew, Bill Thornton; promoters, Dorothea Teagarden; scenery, John Radke; property, Marion Bowers; makeup, Harriet Schwartz, J. L. Russell; costume, Yvonne Jacobs; movie operators, Dean Nichols; slide operators, Mary Begley; microscope, R. P. Seibenaler; electrical crew, Kenneth Young; and the executive board.

It is our hope that with each oncoming class, others will find pleasure in extending the previous work done so that the club's value to Westport will be increased as time goes on.

The Stage and Screen Club wishes to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Keenan and his musicians, Miss Totten's typing classes, and the speech department for the fine cooperation shown by both students and faculty, and to express our appreciation to Mr. Fossum, sponsor, to Miss Keeler, Mr. Miner, and Mr. Powell, advisers, and to Mr. Brown and his staff of custodians for their aid during the past year.

FALL PLAY

"Nothing But the Truth," a comedy in three acts by James Montgomery, was chosen by the play committee as the annual fall play of 1935. The play was presented in the auditorium on the evenings of December 6 and 7. An able cast of talented seniors and juniors gave a splendid performance of this sprightly and amusing comedy. A delighted and appreciative audience applauded the play each night.

SPRING PLAY

"Seven Keys to Baldpate," a mysterious melo-dramatic farce in a prologue, two acts, and an epilogue, played Friday and Saturday nights, May 1, and 2, in the school auditorium. The well balanced cast, the sound effects, the stage setting, and the smoothness of the entire performance made it a truly artistic production.

THE WESTPORT BAND

AS IS USUALLY the case with our band, this year was a full one. Besides playing at all the Interscholastic League Westport football games, the band lent its support to one basketball game. Under the competent direction of Mr. George Keenan, the Westport Band entertained the student body on numerous occasions with its music at assemblies. Mrs. Keenan was a great help to her husband in arranging ticket sales for concerts, etc., besides doing some clerical work. It was she who wrote the new Westport song, which was so popular with the student body as a pep song for football and basketball games. This short march was composed entirely without aid or suggestion from anyone else, and Westport owes her a hearty vote of thanks for this outstanding accomplishment.

This year, the two most important events in which the band participated were the Westport Band and Orchestra Concert held at the school auditorium and the Midwest Band and Orchestra Festival sponsored by the University of Kansas. The concert was given for the purpose of securing enough money to pay partially for instrument repairs and some of the expenses involved in taking a trip of this sort.

Mr. Keenan aided by a competent member of the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra, composed and arranged a concert march to be used by the band as a warm-up number in the contest at Lawrence. Last year, if you remember, the band placed in first division and received a beautiful cup for a year. Upon winning this cup a second time making two years in succession, the cup would be the permanent property of Westport High School. Unfortunately the band did not succeed in placing in the first division, but instead, received a cup for second division which becomes permanent Westport property.

On the whole, the band agrees with Mr. Keenan in that they have enjoyed an unusually fruitful year.

MOTTO: "Weigh, Consider, Express"

In 1908 Pundit was organized by Dellah York, one of a group of ambitious debaters who was anxious for the opportunity to exercise her talents. Previous to that time there had been no organization in which girls took an active part. Under the advisership of Miss Ruth Mary Weeks and the training of Mr. Humphrey the club began its career. Mr. Humphrey gave it the name "Pundit" meaning "wise Hindu."

This year, as usual, Pundit has been well represented in student activities: Class officers, National Honor Society, Debate Team, Senior Business Committee, Herald Staff, Crier Staff, Athletic Pin Winners, Scholarship Winner, Student Council, Society Queens, A Cappella Choir, and Assemblies.

Virginia Anderson was chosen Pundit Beauty Queen, and we feel that she truly represents the beauty and personality of Pundit.

Annually the Pundits give a Spring dance. It is considered one of the biggest events of the year. The girl who has done the most for Pundit is honored at this dance by being crowned "Pundit Queen." We are proud to have Jane Liesenberg as our "Pundit Queen."

We have been fortunate in having Miss Trotter as our advisor for the last two years, and it is here that we wish to express our thanks and appreciation to her for her kindness and cooperation.

CLAY

The Clay Literary Society, established in 1908, is the oldest male organization at Westport. Its purpose is "the mental improvement of all connected with it in the fields of literature, debate, oratory, and forensic activity."

Since its inception, twenty-eight years ago, members of the faculty and alumni have realized that "outstanding men of Westport are Clay men."

Here is Clay's record for 1936:

In student government the Clays were distinguished when our vice-president of the first term was both elected and re-elected President of the Student Council.

The male lead in the Spring Play was superbly acted by a Clay.

As for R. O. T. C., the Clays proudly boast the regimental as well as the battalion commander.

Both of the Presidents of Hi-Y were Clays this year as were both the secretaries and one of the vice-presidents. Needless to say, the Cabinets were made up mostly of Clays.

Clay's chances of being an outstanding club again next year appear even brighter when it is realized that their membership includes the president of this year's Junior Class.

We were outstanding also in athletics. For are not several members of the football squad, the team's manager, and one City all-star basketball player, Clays?

Again, the Editor-in-Chief of the Herald is a Clay, as is every member of the staff except one.

Bill Davis, a former Clay and Herald Editor is, this year, the Editor-in-Chief of the Oberlin College Annual.

As in the past, the Clay Queen, Miss Mildred Neumeyer, was chosen because of her beauty, personality, and character.

We believe that whatever recognition Clay gained in '36 was due in a tremendous portion to our sponsor. We hereby offer our sincere thanks to our sponsor, Mr. LaVerne H. Cutting.

The members of the Promethean Literary Society feel that we can well be proud of our club activities during the past year. Our most outstanding venture has been the inauguration into Westport of the Inter-Literary Society Short Story and Public Speaking Contest, which began as an answer to the Crier's challenge that the literary clubs had drawn away from their original purpose. The project proved very successful and all the school literary societies took part. The winners of this year's contest were: Short Story—first place, Marion Bowers, Promethean; second place, Martha Peters, Promethean; Public Speaking—first place, Martha Peters, Promethean; second place, Jane Liesenberg, Pundit.

We are proud to have had among our members officers of the Junior and Senior classes, members of the Westport Honor Society and the Crier and Herald staffs, and a number of participants in the vaudeville show and the school plays.

For our queen we chose Miss Ramona Cedarholm because she best represents our idea of a perfect Promethean.

Our success has been largely due to our sponsor, Miss Ann Evelyn Roach, because of her sympathetic understanding and aid in our undertakings. To her we wish to extend our sincere appreciation.

Through deeds, not words. The Irving Club has lived up to its motto in an outstanding manner this year. Throughout the year the programs have been arranged so as to give every member the opportunity to participate. Not only have there been successful attempts to further friendships among the members, but a vigorous part has been taken in fostering amicable relations among the clubs.

Among the Irving members may be found representatives of the Crier staff, Herald staff, Senior Business Committee, Executive Board of the Student Council, R. O. T. C. Officers, Westport Honor Society, and Cheerleading Squad.

The Irving Promethean dances were more of a success this year than ever, and in Sarah Buckman, we have one of our most charming Society Queens.

We feel unusually fortunate in again having Mr. Ward as our sponsor and only regret that words cannot express our gratitude for his guidance.

Round Table is proud to have been established in 1900 as one of the first societies in Westport. Members of Round Table have been active and prominent in all phases of school activities. We have been outstanding in Athletics, Scholarship, representation in both senior and junior class officers and student council officers.

We are indeed happy to have Miss Joan McKelvey as our beauty queen and we feel that she stands for every high ideal of this society.

We were fortunate this year in having Mr. Bopp as our sponsor and wish to take this opportunity in thanking him for his cooperation.

May the members of Round Table always live up to their motto, taken from "Idylles of the King," "Live pure, speak the truth, right the wrong, follow the king: Else wherefore born?"

We pass this heritage on the Juniors and Sophomores that follow in our footsteps.

The Alpha Lyra Club, sponsored by Mr. Harling A. Spring, meets like other departmental clubs every other Friday. Any student enrolled in a music course is eligible for membership. The object of the club is to offer an opportunity for the really interested music students to exchange their views, to be enlightened further in musical pursuits, to observe the talents of others, and in turn to exhibit what ability they themselves possess.

Alpha Lyra, music club, sponsored two receptions for the parents of the pupils, of the A Cappella Choir and the Girls Glee Club. We had a most successful year.

Subjects of Spanish history and culture were studied in the meetings and a trip was made to the Nelson Art Gallery to study Spanish art. The year was closed with a picnic, May 8.

The Jules Guerin Art Club, which is sponsored by Miss Shelton Wilhite, originated in December, 1923. This year marked the thirteenth year of pleasure and achievement that the club has enjoyed.

Since Jules Guerin was born in Missouri, it was altogether fitting that a group of enthusiastic artists should choose him as their ideal. Jules Guerin is well known for his beautiful productions which are, for the most part, rendered in flat masses of color, and are distinguished by a style both charming and accurate.

To show his real appreciation of our naming the club in his honor he presented us with a dozen copies of his beautiful church paintings.

Each graduating member presents the club with a piece of his work at the end of the year.

MOTTO: En vivant, vivons vraiment

Les Immortels has continued during the past year to give French students a chance to speak French outside of class. Some very entertaining programs have been given and several informal parties also have been held.

Members of the club wrote and produced a French melodrama which was presented in assembly. The club also gave a program for P. T. A. which consisted of songs, and the French version of "Little Red Riding Hood."

Members of this club have also held prominent places in many other school activities.

We take this opportunity to thank our sponsor, Miss Collins, for her helpful cooperation in showing us how to more fully understand and appreciate the French Language.

The Speech Arts Club is a club related to the Speech Department of Westport. For many years this club has offered opportunities to talented students to further their powers of oral interpretation and public speaking. High scholastic standing and dramatic ability are required for entrance.

The programs this year have included orations, public readings, skits, debates, story telling, and open forum discussions. Much of the success of the club has been made possible by our capable sponsor, Miss Alicia Keeler.

The purpose of the Health Service Club is to give health knowledge to its members in order that they might use this knowledge as a service and benefit to others. To accomplish this the club studies the health problems related to high school students, vital health knowledge to the entire student body.

The manner of presenting this knowledge has been by carrying on health projects throughout the year, in cooperation with the various departments of our school, and our local public health agencies. Some of the projects were: First Aid, Prevention of Tuberculosis, Conservation of Vision and Hearing and Health Supervision.

Health Assistants were chosen from this group to help the nurse in the Health Center. They were Helen Fenton, Bevis Burger, Frances Jue, and Nadine Dreese.

At different times during the year excursions were made to the following institutions of interest: Menorah Hospital, Mercy Hospital and the Power and Light Building.

Members of the club participated in the Service Club Assembly which was presented during the second semester.

Much praise and commendation are due Miss Reich for the inauguration and sponsorship of this club.

The B. C. P. Science Club, having completed its twentieth year, looks back on this last year as an especially successful one.

B. C. P. stands for the different branches of science taught in Westport, namely, Biology, Botany, Chemistry, Physics, Physiography, Physiology, and Zoology.

We were indeed fortunate in again having the founder of the club, Miss Van Neman, as sponsor.

HI-Y CLUB

This year has been one of the most successful in the history of our High School Club. We have increased our membership to approximately fifty members. The cabinet feels that this growth is due to the purpose, motive, and especially to the efforts of the faculty committee, composed of Mr. Van Horne, Mr. Spring, and Mr. Hale, and our advisor from the Y. M. C. A., Mr. Merrill Enyeart. The work of the officers and cabinet must not be forgotten either.

Three outstanding meetings should be mentioned: These are Dad's Night, Mother's Night, Faculty Night. The Hi-Y meetings were held regularly every Monday night, with outstanding men of every profession as speakers.

Next year we hope to grow still more and to include in our numbers every boy who desires to be a real Westporter. If next year is as successful as this year we can look forward to a great Westport High School Club.

Girl Reserve membership is a symbol of the finest girls in school. They strive to live their code which is "As a Girl Reserve I will try to be gracious in manner, impartial in judgment, ready for service, loyal to friends, reaching toward the best, seeing the beautiful, eager for knowledge, reverent to God, victorious over self, ever dependable and sincere at all times."

The club wishes to extend its deep appreciation to its advisors, Miss Grube, Miss Eggleston and Miss Wheeland who so willingly gave their time and ability to make the club a real success. Also, we wish to thank Miss Helen Faye Fair of the Y. W. C. A. for her guidance, and our cabinet for their splendid cooperation. The club has elected a very capable set of officers for next year and we feel they will carry on with flying colors.

AUTOMATIC ELECTRICAL RECORDER

The automatic electrical recorder pictured here was built by George Klenk, Jr., who graduates from Westport this year. This recorder is in continuous operation in the physiography laboratory, Room 309. Students and parents are cordially invited to inspect the apparatus.

The glass case that houses the mechanism measures 8x10x18 inches. The cylinder is 5 inches in diameter and rotates once every 12 hours. The graph paper that fits around the cylinder is marked off in 15 minute intervals. Two recording pens rest on the graph paper as it turns. One pen records each 1/100th inch of rain. This pen is made to move by an electro-magnet connected to a tipping bucket apparatus built by Mr. Klenk and which can also be seen in Room 309. On the roof a funnel, 12 inches in diameter, catches the rain which is carried to the laboratory in a copper tube, thence into the tipping bucket. Each time 1/100th inch of rain falls, the bucket dumps and closes an electrical circuit which causes the electro-magnet on the recorder to move the recording pen.

The other pen records the average wind velocity in miles per hour. It is also made to move by an electro magnet which is connected to a standard anemometer on the roof. The anemometer consists of three rotating cups and a set of complex gears. This instrument was purchased.

Mr. Klenk is to be congratulated on his mechanical ability. The instruments he has made are not only accurate but attractive.

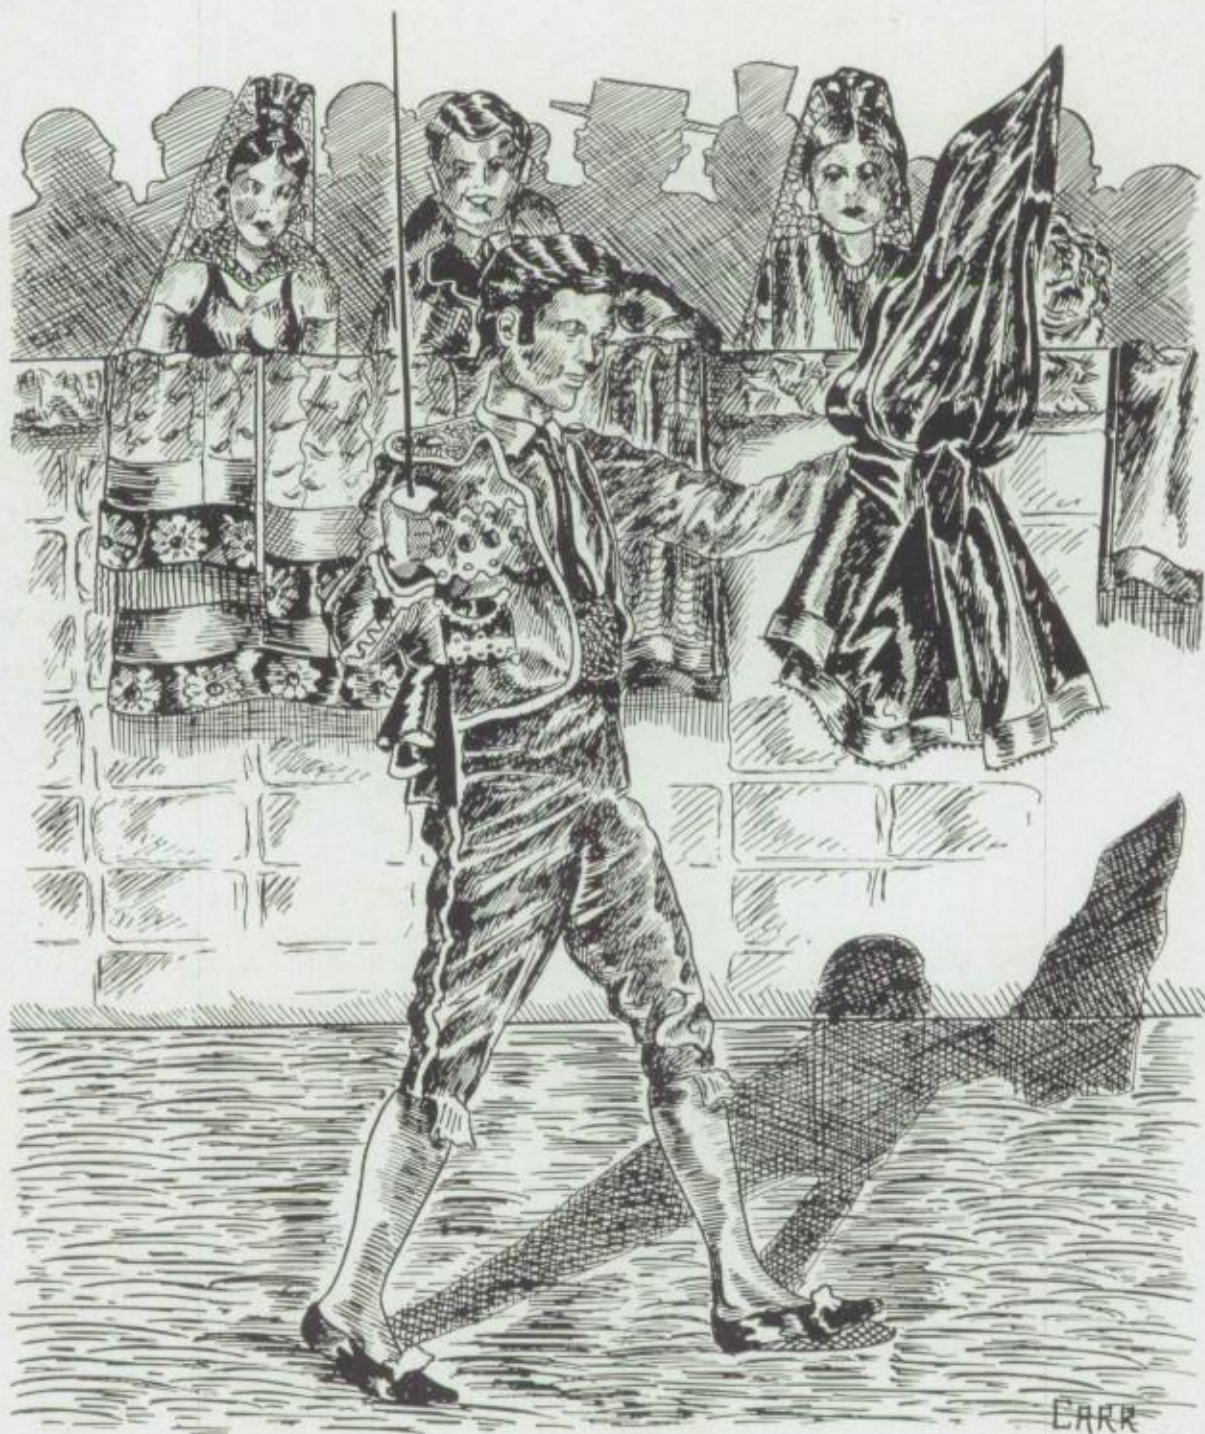

This wagon was made in the wood work and metal shops at Westport. The body, being of wood and painted red and blue was made in the wood shop and the metal parts, such as the axles, braces, and bolts were made in the metal shop. The body is four feet long and two feet wide. The dog, named Judge, is a thoroughbred St. Bernard and his master a Westport student.

The frame work of a model airplane designed and constructed by Dudley Grimm, a Westport student. The model has a wing span of eight feet and is powered by a miniature gasoline engine. It has made several successful flights, the longest remaining in the air for six minutes. This is one of the first model planes of its type (a pusher) in the Country.

INTRAMURAL ATHLETICS

AN extension of the benefits of athletics has come about in recent years by the development of intramural athletics. Through such a program of mass athletics more students are reached with less emphasis on high pressure coaching, gate receipt and winning. Educators, as well as students, are in favor of intramural athletics.

The value of athletic training in the development of youth was recognized by the early Greek civilization. In the dialogue between Anacharsis and Solon by Lucian, a splendid defense of athletic training is made. Our own Noah Webster in an address given in Hartford, Connecticut, in 1790, said that it should be "the buzziness of yung persons to assist nature, and strengthen his growing frame by athletic exercizes." However, the first practical application of this idea did not materialize until 1825 at the Round Hill School at Northampton, Massachusetts, when was made the first attempt to "connect gymnastics with a purely literary establishment."

Although the past is replete with attempts to utilize athletics in the training program for youth, it is the present day which has actually placed athletics of the intramural type in the regular school physical education schedule. Every afternoon at our Kansas City high school courts, gymnasias and pools thousands of boys and girls and hundreds of teams enjoy the individual sports and team games of the intramural program. During the past winter the girls in the high schools played on 184 intramural basket ball teams; the boys in the spring will play on some 250 soft ball teams; over 1000 girls engage in tennis tournaments; and golf competition occupies 194 boys. Scores of other actiivties are used in this intramural program in which from 30% to 50% of all high school boys and girls engage. The total number of senior high school pupils engaged in after-school athletics makes an army of some 5,000 students. Athletics for all have come with the advent of the intramural program.

MR. NEWMAN

MR. HARRIS

COACH GAYLE T. CHUBB

Came to Westport from Badlwin, Kansas. His first Duty as a coach was to assist Mr. Newman in handling the football squad. Then he was given the full control of the basketball team. He developed a spirit in the team that has been lacking for some years. The team finished in second place tie. Next he took over the Track Squad. While the track season was not a success, it did develop a number of promising Sophomores and Juniors.

COACH HARRIS R. NEWMAN

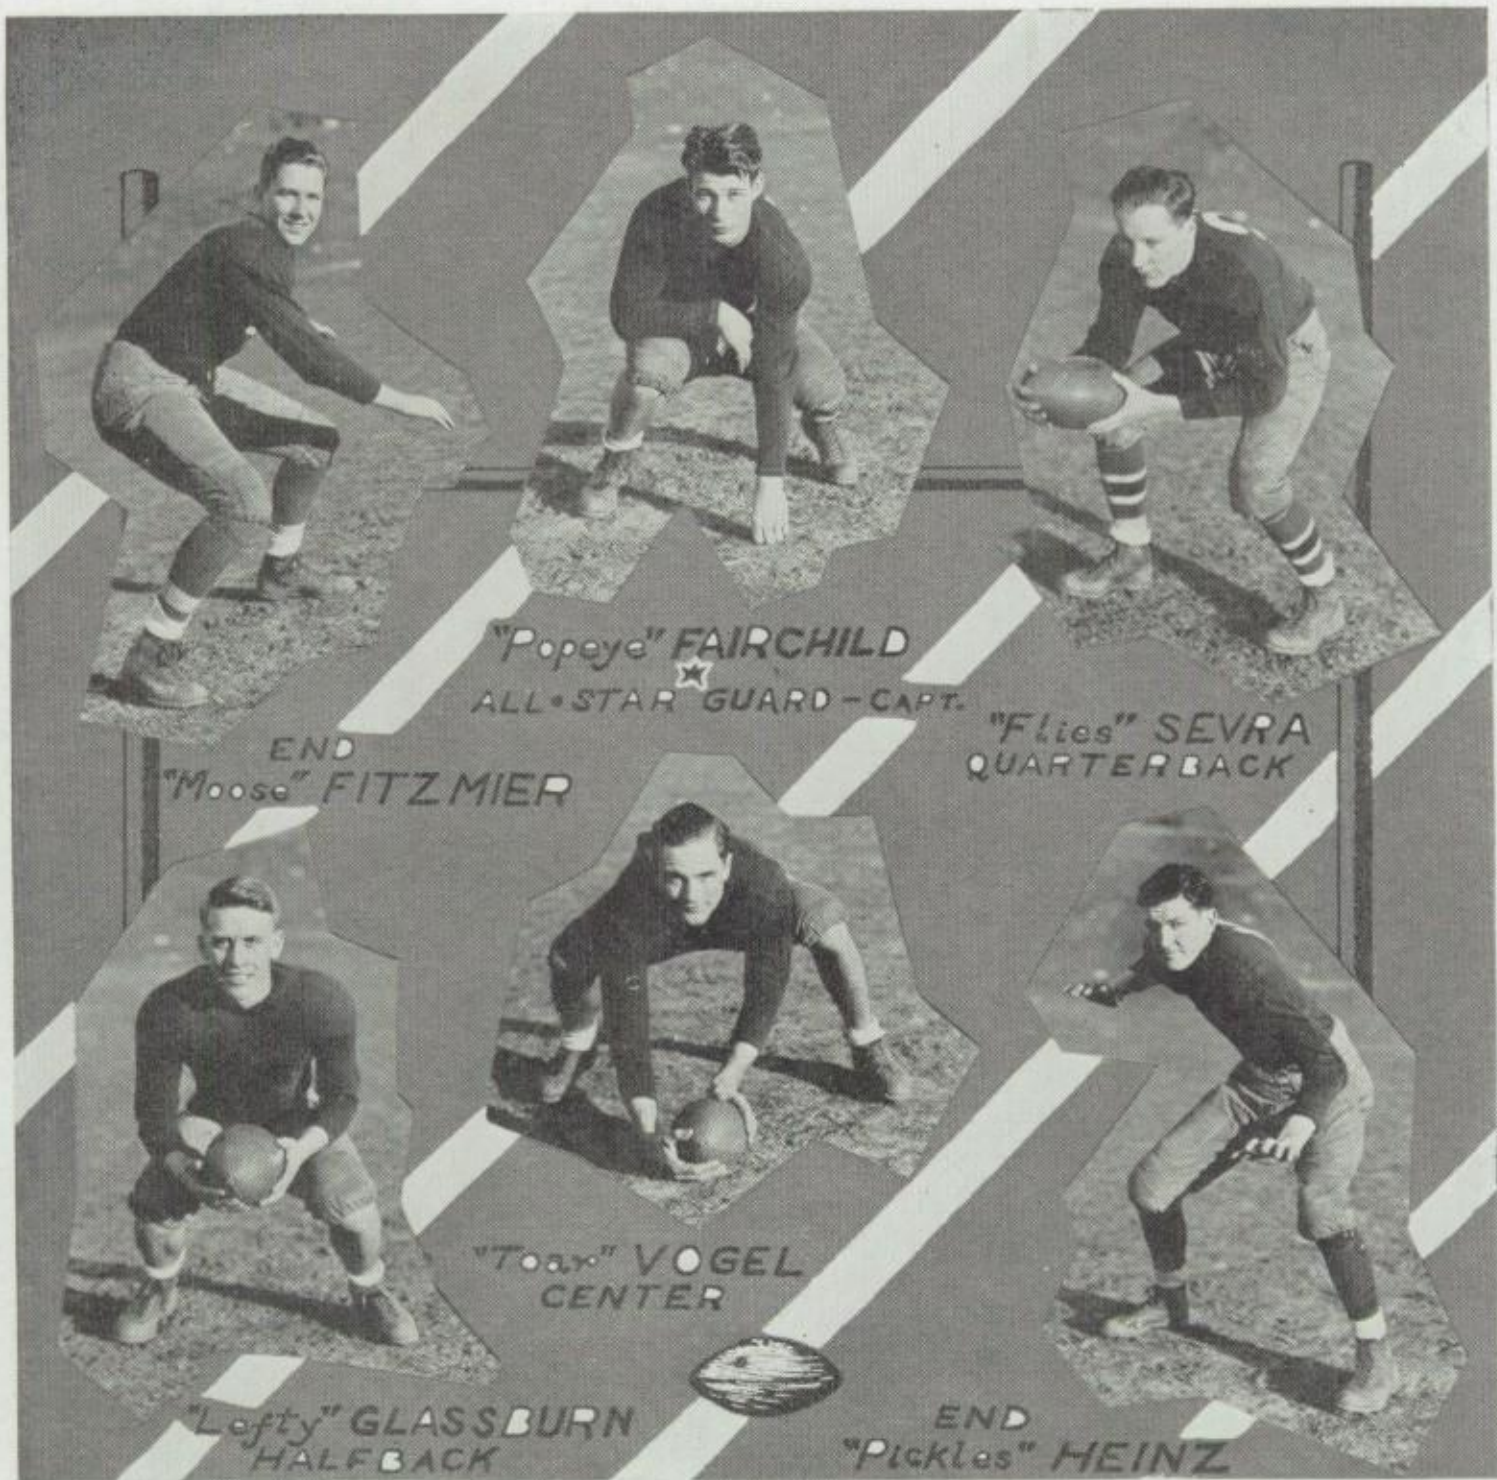

Is now an ex-coach at Westport. He was transferred at the end of the First Semester to Paseo High School. This year he handled the Football Team, and it produced the typical Westport Upsets. Paseo was tied and the highly favored Southwest Indians were trounced 32-0. We are sorry to have Mr. Newman leave us, but his work will not be forgotten, and the players he helped develop will remember him as a swell coach and a fine friend.

COACH RALPH S. HARRIS

Coming to Westport as a teacher of sciences it was necessary for Mr. Harris to aid Mr. Chubb in coaching of the Basketball and Track Squads. He took complete charge of the second team basketball, and turned out some promising material for next year's team. His assistance was certainly welcomed, and he did exceptionally well with the teams.

WESTPORT vs. PASEO — Neubert plunges over to tie score

WESTPORT vs. ALUMNI 0-0

In keeping with the custom of previous years Westport played their first game of the year against the "old-grads." It turned out to be a hard fought scoreless tie. The Tigers at no time threatened the goal line, but performed well in keeping the Alumni from scoring.

WESTPORT vs. WARD 0-6

A spectacular 68-yard run by a Ward star in the second quarter of the game provided the Kansas victory over a fighting Tiger team. The defensive work of Heinz, Fairchild, and Reed deserves comment. Also the running and punting of "Red" Beattie must be mentioned as remarkable for early season form.

WESTPORT vs. NORTHEAST 6-12

Unsuccessful in their running attack and almost as unsuccessful in their passing attempts Westport Tigers lost to the champion Northeast Vikings. Our lone score came on a pass to Bruce from Beattie. The hard tackling and running of Ahrenholz and Gorham stopped many of the Viking's plays. Two 50-yard runs by Ice and Layton did the damage. The Tigers, however, outplayed the heavier Northeast team.

Another "break" caused the defeat of the Tigers by Manual 6-0. Beattie, in the attempt to break up a pass from Cavalier-Fergus, only tapped the ball and it fell nicely into the receiver's hands, who had nothing to do but step over the goal-line for a touchdown. The play of "Lefty" Glassburn and "Suds" Sevrá in the Tiger backfield was splendid. Also the defensive work of Fairchild, Fitzmier, and Vogel stopped many Manual line thrusts and end runs.

WESTPORT vs. EAST 7-12

A game in which the team failed to click in any department. The defense was bad and the offense, with 33 passes attempted, was none too alert. East scored on straight running plays. Taking advantage of a "Tiger" fumble, they scored in the first quarter. They again tallied at the opening of the last quarter. Then on a hide-out play "Pickles" Heinz caught a pass and went to the 15-yard line. A pass to Bruce was good for a touchdown. Gorham converted the extra point.

WESTPORT vs. CENTRAL 0-7

This game, played on a soggy field, turned out to be a slow, rough game. In the third quarter Central scored on a beautiful pass which traveled about 40-yards to a man in the end-zone. Neubert, Snedden and Hathaway, in the backfield, and Jack Keith, center, were outstanding for the Tigers. "Lefty" Glassburn suffered a broken nose in this game.

WESTPORT vs. SOUTHWEST 32-0

Undoubtedly the game of the year. A Tiger team, with "Shocker" Neubert leading the offensive attack, upset all previous league "dope" and handed a much cherished defeat to the Indians. The team had what it took; fight, spirit, power, timely blocking, and fierce tackling. Taking the ball on the opening kick-off they didn't give it back till a score was produced. Not content with this, the Tigers with Neubert and Beattie alternating at running and some fine passes to Sevrá from "Red" pushed over four more touchdowns before calling it a day. The linemen, Fairchild, Smith, and Ahrenholz, kept the Indian's offense at a standstill. The whole team played a great game.

WESTPORT vs. PASEO 7-7

The same fighting spirit that defeated Southwest prevailed in this exciting, thrill-packed game. If the Tigers had won no one could have been more happy. After the Pirates had scored in the first quarter the Tigers, with Neubert again leading the drive, tied the count. Bob picked a Paseo fumble out of the air and ran to the 16-yard line. From their straight power plays carried it to the 1-yard line. Then Neubert plunged over. The tying point came on a perfect place kick by "Tiny" Ahrenholz. The last half saw some fine defensive work by Heinz, Beattie and Captain "Popeye" Fairchild.

BASKETBALL

WESTPORT vs. ROSEDALE 8-27

Westport's opening game was the kind one likes to forget. Starting the game with a slow breaking offense the Tigers were never able to snap out of it. Rosedale's experienced players scored at will, and the final count was 27-8 against our team.

WESTPORT vs. ALUMNI 28-23

The annual game with the "grads" turned out to be a hard earned victory. Playing good constant basketball the Tigers were able to win by the score of 28-23. Harry "Pete" Peterson was the main cog in the triumph. The officiating was handled by "Toddy" Newman, the Tiger's ex-coach.

WESTPORT vs. NORTHEAST 29-28

A Free Throw did it. In the closing minutes of a thrill-packed game Browder Richman, who had just entered the game, stepped forward and dropped in a free throw that broke a 28-28 tie, and ten seconds later Westport was a victor over Northeast. Yes, just ten seconds remained when that point was made. The team that became the city champions, was humbled by the wayside. Northeast was continually being set back by the wonderful shooting of Claude Hickey and Roy Snedden. With Mondell Ahrenholz controlling the tip, the Tigers, led by Snedden, Hickey, and Payne, put on some beautiful plays which led the team to victory. "Red" Beattie proved to be more than a common guard, as he broke up many passes and played a great offensive game.

WESTPORT vs. WARD 25-29

A hard fought game in which Beattie, Sevrá, and Youngs stood out was lost to the Cyclones. Hickey was in a scoring stride and dropped in nine valuable points. His play under the basket was exceptional.

WESTPORT vs. MANUAL 14-23

The Tigers returned to the Hall to lose a slow game which was Manual's all the way. Harper, Ungerleider, Snedden and Beattie handled Westport's scoring and they all played a good floor game. The Tigers, with substitutes continually entering the game, were unable to start clicking. Passing was bad, the shooting inferior.

WESTPORT vs. EAST 25-19

With David Payne, all-star forward, dropping in seven points in the last three minutes of play, East was defeated by a scrapping, never quitting, team of Westporters. The credit of victory, however, belongs to five players. The team played as if it were a machine, the spirit great and the playing equally as good. Ahrenholz, Westport's star center, used his height to take many rebounds from the backboards. Vic Yarrington made his debut in this game and proved to be a most valuable asset to the team. Bob Bruce proved to be a fine defensive player.

WESTPORT vs. WM. CHRISMAN 16-36

Playing on a floor which forced the players to use rosin on their shoes so they could stand, Westport lost a game full of mistakes and sloppy passing. It was a relief when the final gun was sounded. Hickey, Yarrington, and Payne were the only Tigers able to score from the field. Although the Bear's score was high, Ahrenholz and Snedden did some fine defensive work.

WESTPORT vs. PASEO 12-20

Lacking something, nobody knew what, the Tigers lost to the lowly Paseo Pirates. Everything Westport tried went wrong, and Paseo played their best game of the season. And that was that. About all the game did was to give Coach Chubb a chance to use all of his players. Payne was lost to the team shortly after the opening whistle, as he received an injury in a collision with a Paseo player.

WESTPORT vs. CENTRAL 25-21

Getting back into winning form the Tigers defeated the highly favored Blue Eagles in a hard, fast, breath-taking game. Ahrenholz played his best all-around game of the year, and Payne hit another scoring spree in the closing minutes of the game. Hickey, Snedden, and Beattie merited much deserved compliments. Their defense work and their fine team spirit gave the Tigers that extra victory touch. Late in the game with three minutes to play, the Blue Eagles leading 21-18, and Ahrenholz on the sidelines with four personal fouls, the outlook was dull. But that "never quit" spirit of the Tigers led them to a seven point finish, and another cherished victory put safely away. It is this type of basketball that gives the spectators what they want, and gives the players the desire to play harder.

Mondell Ahrenholz closed his high school competition by leading the Tigers to a sweeping victory over our bitter rivals, the Southwest Indians. No less than sixteen points were scored by our "midget" center. Southwest lead 12-11 at the close of the first half, but with the opening of the final half the Tigers stepped out. 1-2-3-4 the ball swished through the nettings, adding to the Tigers' score. And when the game was over Ahrenholz, commonly known as Tiny, was a star, and the Tigers were in a second place tie. The season was over and Westport's athletic teams seem to be on a winning basis again.

Westport was well represented on the official all-star teams. David Payne received a forward position on the First-Team, and Charles Beattie and Mondell Ahrenholz received honorable-mention. The other all-star players were: Cavaleri and Cirrincione, of Manual, Denton of Northeast, and Brenton of Central.

Next year's returning lettermen are Hickey, Snedden, Beattie, Peterson, Youngs, Bruce, and Harper. The team will lose the valuable assistance of Bob "Parson" Mead as manager.

GOLF TEAM

The golf team, led by Harry Peterson, turned in a fine season by finishing in second place in the interscholastic tournament this fall. An elimination tournament held at the beginning of the year gave Mr. West, golf coach, an opportunity to pick the team. Besides Peterson, whose picture is at the left, the team consisted of Jack Elliot, Ed. Byrne, Paul Caperfoli, Tom Boosinger, and Tony Gayle.

TENNIS TEAM

The Westport Tennis Team enjoyed another successful year winning both the interscholastic titles. The team this year consisted of Claude Hickey, captain, Graige Harper, Browder Richman, Stacy Haines, Bill Harris, and Bob Steele. Claude Hickey won the singles championship, while Harris and Harper captured the doubles crown for Westport. Hickey continued his winning stride into the state tournament at Columbia. There he finished in runner up position, bringing more honor to Westport.

TRACK TEAM

Winning only one Dual Meet this year the season might be called a failure, but many of the lettermen this year are sophomores and juniors and will be in competition next year. Manual was the only victim of the Tiger tracksters. Paseo, Southwest, and Northeast all succeeded in trimming the team badly. The city meet at Southwest will be close with Westport winning only a few points. Those points may, however, be the ones that will keep a certain team from triumphing. The next two years should be happy ones for Westport Track Teams.

Four senior girls have won the senior athletic pin, for their outstanding ability throughout the three years of senior high school physical education. In order to receive this award, the girl must have received a minimum of six letters, one of them won in her senior year. The Westport letter is given only to those girls who have shown mastery and skill in each particular sport. She must have exhibited good sportsmanship in all competition, and was required to have at least eight scholarship points each five weeks. The four girls to whom the pin is awarded this year are:

SARAH ROGERS who has won six letters in major sports, hockey letters in '33, '34, '35, basketball letter in '35, '36, baseball letter in '35.

VIRGINIA ANDERSON, who has won eight letters in the three major sports, hockey in '33, '34, '35, basketball in '34, '35, '36, baseball in '34, '36.

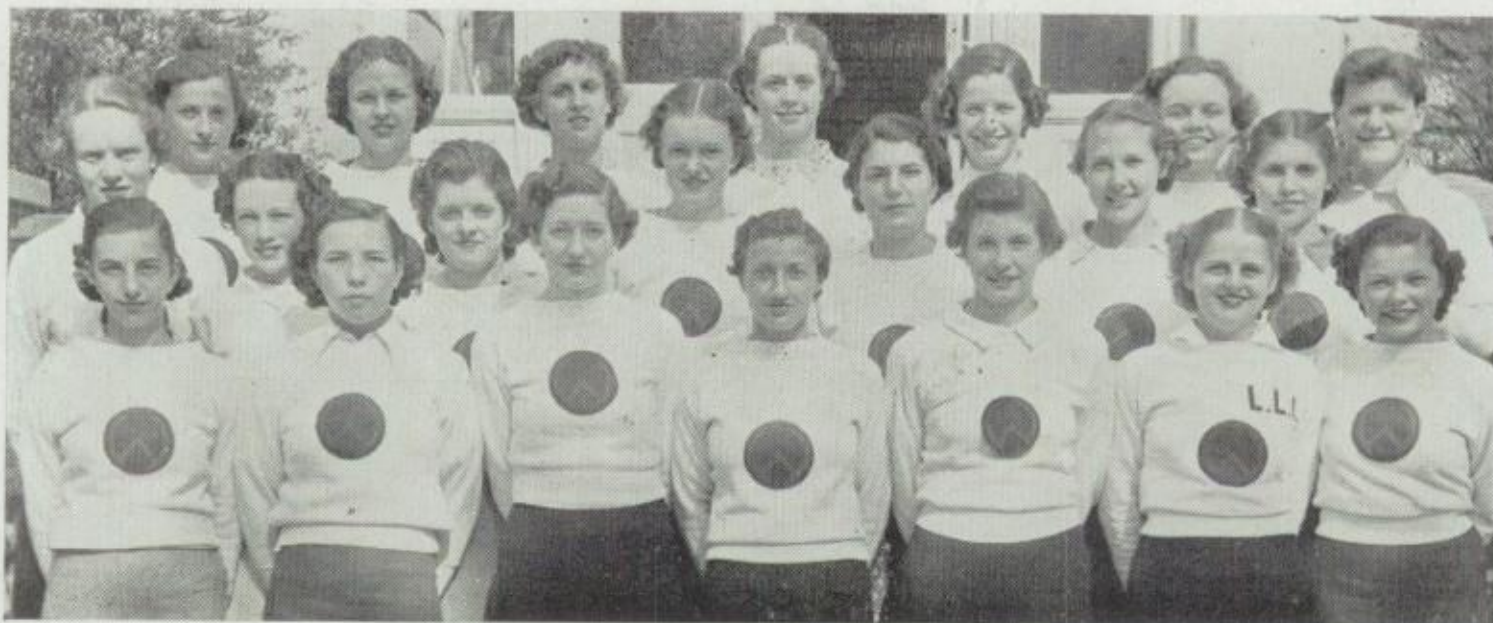

MARCIA RICKER, who has won five letters to date, and is certain of another in the yet unfinished baseball season, has two letters in hockey, '34, '35, basketball in '36, baseball in '34, '35.

MARY BAILEY, who has won letters six times, hockey in '33, '34, '35, basketball in '34, '35, '36.

Due to unfinished seasons, the list of letters for these girls is incomplete, however, they have all qualified, or will without doubt qualify in the remaining time of school.

HOCKEY

SENIOR TEAM

The 1933 hockey season, though delayed by muddy fields a great deal, finished in a tie between the seniors and the juniors. The two teams were closely matched, and the play by the two forward lines was outstanding. Owing to lack of skill, the sophomores were unable to win any games, but they showed promise of becoming a strong team with more practice.

The high point scorers were Mary Bailey with ten goals to her credit, Virginia Anderson with nine, Margaret Chaney of the juniors with six, and Mary E. Finn, Sarah Rogers, Martha Anderson, and Martha Smith next in order named.

The powerful seniors finished the basketball season with a clean record of having lost no games and having tied none. They showed accurate skill in passing, and also displayed fast foot-work. Neither the juniors nor the sophomores were able to make any dent in the offense or the defense of the senior squad. The total of points scored by the seniors was 142, against the sophomores' 53, and the juniors' 42.

Virginia Anderson was high point scorer, having 56 points to her credit. Sarah Millstein scored fifty points, Florence Campbell 29, Marion Garrett 28, Roye Elise Gregg 21, Ada Mae Silkenat 19.

TEAMS

One of the main events in the basketball season is the game between the Alumnae and a picked Westport team. In the game this year, the Home-Team won 26-25. In this game the best skill of the defending team is called for. Often many of the alumnae have continued their basketball in colleges, city leagues, and outside tournaments, so the more inexperienced Westport girls are proud if they defeat the home-coming team.

In the junior-senior games, a two-court game is played, using zone defense. In the alumnae game, this type of game is used. In games played against the sophomores, a three-court game is used, with two centers, a running-center, and a jumping center controlling the middle court. Miss Bradley has taught several types of basketball for the classes, which the girls enjoyed.

The issue of the current baseball season is undecided when the Herald goes to press. The favor is divided between the Junior squad and the Senior squad, with a slight advantage for the Juniors. At the time of the writing of this article, the juniors have a material lead over the seniors, but an unequal number of games have been played by each team, so there is no real lead. The juniors have been accorded the privilege of being called the temporary winners, although there is a good chance of the title being taken by the seniors. The season will end with a game between the juniors and the seniors, two strong teams, deciding the champions.

Traditions of the Girls' Gym

IN the possession of the girls' physical education department of the school there is a cup with only years represented on it. This cup is won only after three major sport competitions are won in succession by one class team. These championships may be divided into two years, such as those of the class of '36. The present senior senior team has won the honor of having their class number engraved on the cup, by virtue of having taken the baseball championship last year, of having tied the hockey championship this year, and by taking the basketball title without much competition. The class of '36 is the first class since 1932 to have won the cup, and they are certainly proud of it.

Recognition is here accorded those girls who have so faithfully given their time in the serving of their teams, namely, the managers. The hockey manager was Mary Catherine Hinkle, who faithfully took attendance for the 1,300-odd girls who reported for hockey practice. The basketball squads were managed by J. Wilkinson, who had the difficult task of checking the mass of girls in the gym who wished to report for basketball. In baseball, S. Millstein helped those with injured fingers, took attendance, and looked after supplies in general. All of these managers had charge of the party which comes as a climax to each major sport, when the hockey sticks, basketballs, and baseballs are put aside until the following year. At these sport parties, letters are awarded, after amusement is afforded the three teams, and then refreshments are served. Each season is closed with regret on the part of every girl who participated.

The tradition of giving the sophomores a taste of "hazing," just before just before the hockey season opens has been carried on for many years. Every member of the young, green, incoming class, has to endure a regular initiation, and many a sophomore has been humbled by the stern commands and often stinging actions of an upper-classman. The whole thing is presented in a spirit of fun, and there is always a chance for the beaten to take it out on the next year's crop of froshies.

The alumnae game has been mentioned before in this section, and it is indeed the highlight of the year. Also, the final picnic of the year is held, for those who have been on the teams or would enjoy coming from the classes. It is a grand finale to the successful year of stimulating activity, and all the graduates leave with a deep appreciation of the coaching abilities of both Miss Bradley and Mrs. Schuler, our department heads.

MAJ. JOSEPH H. GRANT
P. M. S. & T.

THE ADVANTAGES OF R. O. T. C. TRAINING

EDUCATION, it seems to me, should have as its main objective the development of the student physically and mentally. It should also, as far as possible, teach him the rules of the mighty game of life and, in the words of Huxley, should so train him in youth "that his body is the ready servant of his will, and does with ease and pleasure all the work, that as a mechanism it is capable of: . . . whose intellect is a clear, cold, logic engine with all its parts of equal strength and in smooth working order. . . . whose mind is stored with the great and fundamental truths of nature." To this object and to these purposes R. O. T. C. training contributes.

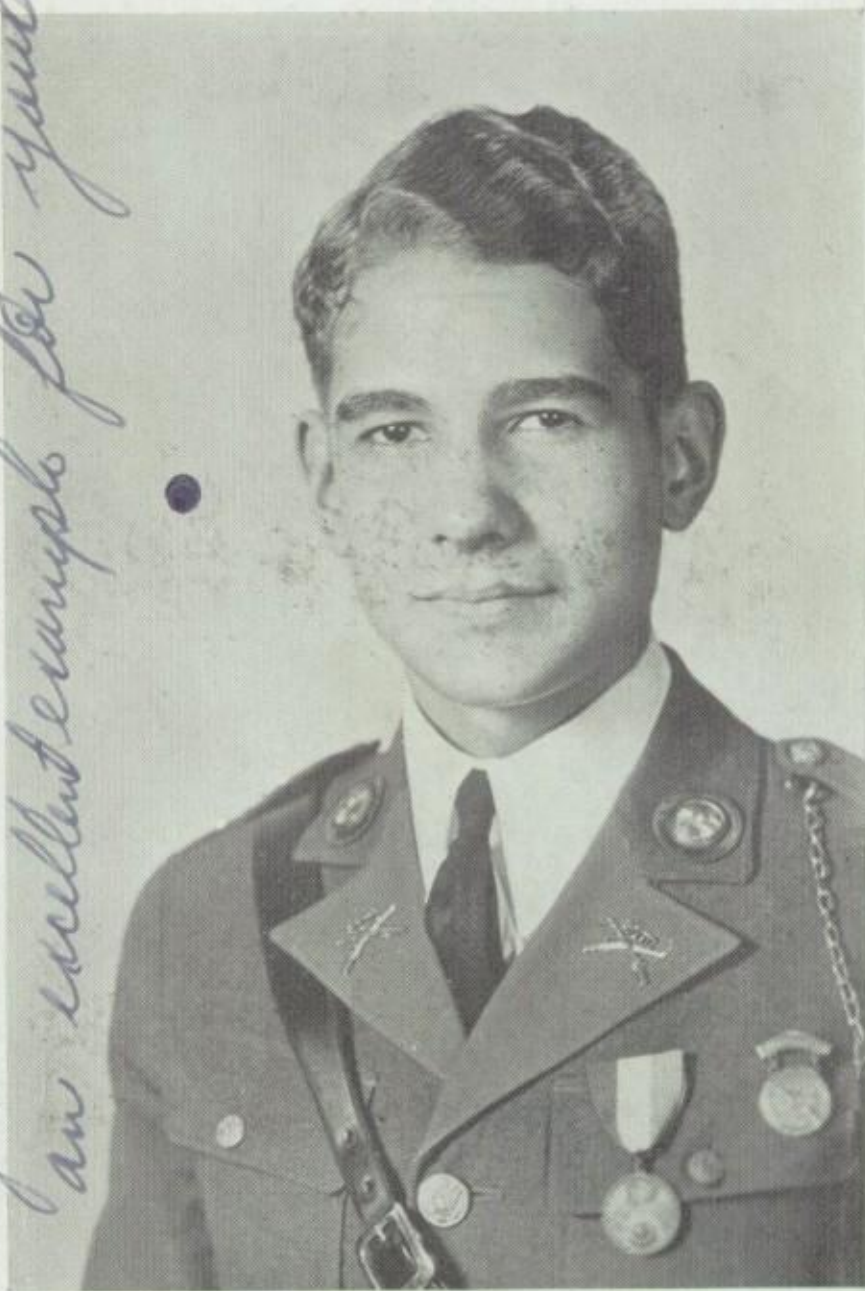

R. O. T. C. training does these things to make of the body "the ready servant of the will." It helps to overcome awkwardness; it trains in co-ordination both of the body and the mind; it teaches control; and it strives for correct posture. In all the R. O. T. C. drill and calisthenics, exactness, careful timing, precision and bodily co-ordination are required to a degree not found elsewhere. R. O. T. C. training does stand for co-ordinated physical development.

But R. O. T. C. training also fosters mental progress. It improves and develops the qualities of alertness. It increases the powers of attention with a consequent increase in the powers of concentration. Decisions then are made promptly. Quick thinking is developed. Then too, it furnishes the student with a large amount of decidedly worthwhile general information. For example: the care of wounds and minor injuries, the sanitation of water, and the elements of personal hygiene are all of very practical benefit. R. O. T. C. training stands there for mental development.

Finally, R. O. T. C. training seeks to develop certain intangible qualities among which are loyalty, a spirit of co-operation and a sense of responsibility. The R. O. T. C. stands for unselfishness. The very uniform indicates that its wearer is not working for himself alone. The idea of service for the common good is his.

"B" COMPANY

Though the smallest company in the Battalion, "B" has come through this year with flying colors. It has been color company for a short while, and has contributed to all the activities of the Westport Battalion.

It has been led by Capt. John Counsell, commander; Lieut. Ben Eisberg, 2nd in command; Lt. Jack Polkey, Band Officer, and Lt. Tabler and Lt. Klenk, platoon commanders. Its former captain is now Major William Brent, Battalion commander.

Two American Legion Medal winners, two expert riflemen, and three rifle team members are in "B" company.

CAPT. BURR

"C" COMPANY

The best in the battalion—thus has "C" Company been designated by the Sergeant-Instructor. Throughout the year our company has excelled in drill and tactical work. From "C" Company rose the commander of the Kansas City High Schools Regiment. Six members of the crack squad came from "C" Company.

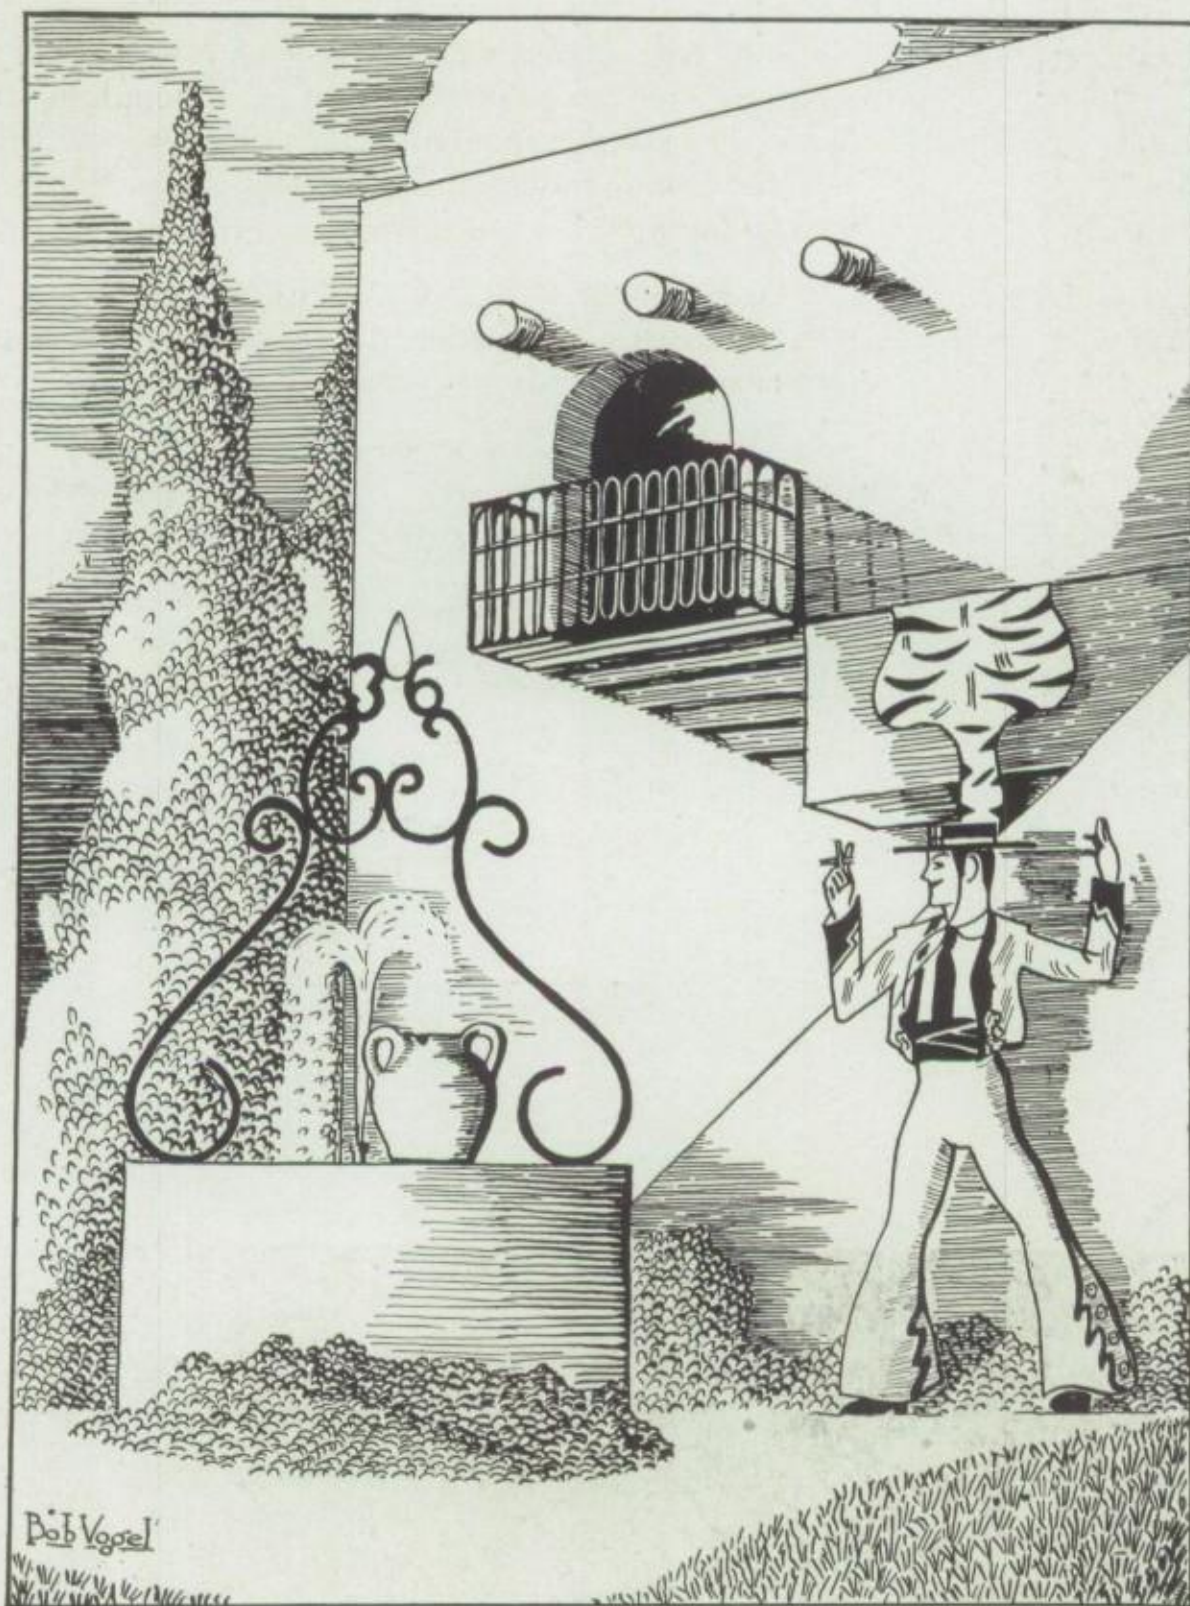

On the staff of "C" Company may be found the Cadet Colonel of Kansas City, the Cadet Major of Westport High School, the Reconnaissance, and Athletics officers and the Personnel Adjutant.

The spirit of cooperation has lifted "C" Company to the top for the second successive year. It has always turned out in full force for parades and extra drills.

The company staff wishes to take this opportunity to thank the non-commissioned and cadet personnel for their cheerful goodwill and their persistent effort to put us at the top.

—All those in favor say “eye.” The eyes say “yes,” the mouths say “no.” The eyes have It! Can you match the eyes and mouths? Try your luck. You will find the key on page 138.

THE WORD “KISS” PARSED

Kiss is a conjunction because it connects. It is a verb because it signifies to act and to be acted upon. It is an interjection (at least it sounds like one) and it is a pronoun because “she” always stands for a kiss. It is a noun because it is the name of an osculatory action; both common and proper; second person necessarily; and plural number because there is always more than one; masculine and feminine gender mixed; frequently the case is governed by circumstances and light. It should always begin with a capital letter, be often repeated, continued as long as possible and ended with a period. Kiss might be conjugated, but never declined.

The Tragic Story

Once upon a time a poetess
Wrote of three little pigs in distress
A big bad wolf tried his best to catch,
The three little pigs Ahren, Vic, and Satch.

He hounded as a wolf can do,
He gave them blue cards and not a few
But for them he was no match,
The wolf they conquered Ahren, Vic, and Satch.

THE THINKER

To be or not to be, that is the question.

DURING THIS ECONOMIC CONFUSION a good many merchants have kept their business going and even made gains through judicious use of Advertising — No one has yet discovered any better system of merchandising a product than selling it—
Advertising is selling . . . just telling people what you have—why it is good and why they should buy it.

We do a lot of printing for advertisers (been doing it for 28 years)—we've kept our plant up to keep down costs — we've added sensible improvements to keep up an attractive product—some of our employees are young with the enthusiasm of youth
— some are older with respect for tradition—the total is a balanced effort and opinion fitted to almost any demand.

We would like you to try it.
